ASH WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6

ONE SERVICE, 7:00 P.M.

“Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return.” These words, taken from the Book of Common Prayer, are spoken on Ash Wednesday as our foreheads are marked with an ashy cross. The words and the cross are to remind us that we are finite creatures totally dependent on God. It is easy to forget that we are not the author or our lives nor are we life’s sustainer. Everything is pure gift from God. Jesus says, “whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.” During this Lenten season, take some time to pray and to thank God for the amazing gift of life you have been given. And remember, you are God’s beloved child.

- Jane

Ash Wednesday

*Remember that you are dust,
and to dust you shall return.*
